Urban Transportation Center at UIC Presents a Fall 2017 Seminar Series Event

Looking Back on CMAP’s GO TO 2040

Thursday, November 2, 2017  11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Our expert will address these and other topics:

- Insight on CMAP’s comprehensive and regional plans
- How CMAP arrived at GO TO 2040 and how it is working toward ON TO 2050

Speaker: Bob Dean, CMAP Deputy Executive Director for Planning
Venue: Great Cities Institute, 4th Floor, 412 S. Peoria St., CUPPA Hall

Open to all. Please feel free to bring your lunch. Pizza will be served.
RPB Meeting Agenda

9:30 a.m., Thursday, October 20, 2005
Cunningham Conference Room (second floor)
Chicago Area Transportation Study offices
300 West Adams Street, Chicago, IL

Welcome and Introductions
  Tim Martin, Secretary, IDOT

Background Information
  CATS-NIPC Coordinating Committee

HB 3121 and what it means
  Randy Blankenhorn, IDOT

Responsibilities of the Board
  Tom Cuculich, DuPage County

Establishment of a Nominating Committee for Board Officers
  Ron Thomas, NIPC

Establishment of Working Committees
  Don Kopec, CATS
    By-Laws
    Personnel and Operations
    Financial Oversight and Planning
    Legal and Legislative Issues

Creation of Citizen’s Advisory Committee
  Jim LaBelle, Chicago Metropolis 2020

Regional Planning Board Support
  David Bennett, Metropolitan Mayor’s Caucus

Meeting Schedule
  Tim Martin

Public Comment

Adjournment
Libra Characteristics

• Balanced: represented by the scales

• Diplomatic: “ability to listen to differing points of view with a great deal of patience”

• Just: “strive for justice and fairness” but “by trying to be just and fair all the time...may forget that they too may have an opinion”

• Indecisive: “with all their balancing qualities...can be terribly indecisive”

• Cooperative: “inherent need for partnership”

• Detached: “attention is often up in the clouds”

• “Prefers action rather than planning”...?
Born October 20, 2005
GO TO
2040
ON TO 2050

Metropolitan Chicago’s Next Comprehensive Regional Plan
Urban Transportation Center at UIC Presents a Fall 2017 Seminar Series Event

Looking Back on CMAP’s GO TO 2040

Thursday, November 2, 2017 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Our expert will address these and other topics:

- Insight on CMAP’s comprehensive and regional plans
- How CMAP arrived at GO TO 2040 and how it is working toward ON TO 2050

Speaker: Bob Dean, CMAP Deputy Executive Director for Planning
Venue: Great Cities Institute, 4th Floor, 412 S. Peoria St., CUPPA Hall

Open to all. Please feel free to bring your lunch. Pizza will be served.